A VERY INTERESTING MEETING

of the Palmetto Club held Thursday afternoon was well attended and much enjoyed.

The Palmetto Club met to regular session in this room, March 2nd. The afternoon was in charge of the Educational Department. After the president called the meeting to order, she resigned the chair to Miss Kathryn Thompson, chairman of the department.

The program opened with a solo, "The South," by Mrs. L. M. Watto, who was highly applauded. She responded with an encore, "Little Old Virginia," sung as accompanied by Miss Robinson of the piano.

Mrs. R. F. Marsh then gave a very interesting address on education, closing with a beautiful little poem.

Mrs. R. F. Stewart sang a solo in the vocal department and very gracefully responded with an encore to the chorus of applause. She was assisted on the piano by Miss McFarlane.

Mrs. R. S. Mayo then read in her clear voice a most interesting paper on "The Schooling of Vacation Schools." Sixty copies of the many advantages derived from the benefit they were to all who attended, etc., and mentioned those of New York, Boston and other cities, it was of interesting one being in London, New York.

Mrs. Marsh, alone of the ladies, now sang to the ladies and gave a most excellent and interesting address on "The Schooling of Vacation Schools." Sixty copies of the many advantages derived from the benefit they were to all who attended, etc., and mentioned those of New York, Boston and other cities, it was of interesting one being in London, New York.

Mrs. Stewart closed the program of a most interesting afternoon, and before adjourning, Mr. Rayner gave a sketch of the work done the past year for the Educational Department.

Refreshments, consisting of cake and cream, were served by the ladies of the department, and a very pleasant social hour was enjoyed by all.

Mr. Pratt was able to be out yesterday, the first time in several days.

Governor Howard yesterday appointed James P. Talliferro, United States Senator for the 10th district, to fill the vacancy. Mr. Howard and Senator Talliferro have been of different political factions, but the governor placed principal above partisanship and named the man who was undoubtedly the choice of the primary.

Hon. Robt. W. Davis.

Hon. R. W. Davis, who has ably represented the second district of Congress for the past eight years, will retire to private life, Saturday, March 1st. We take pleasure in reprinting from the Washington Post one of the greatest and most influential papers in the country the following article regarding our retiring Congressman:

A veteran Southern Democrat, who has done his State faithful service retired to private life at the close of this session in the person of Robert W. Davis, of Florida. Small as the Florida delegation is, it has been one of the most influential from the South in doing things for Florida people. Since Mr. Davis entered Congress eight years ago Florida's two Senators and two members have secured many hundreds of thousands of dollars for river and harbor improvements, a number of good public buildings, and have collected from the government over a million dollars for an old Indian war claim. As one of the hardest workers in Congress, Davis contributed his share toward the well known success of the delegation. He has spent seldom but always to the point and never for himself. The retiring Florida member has made no enemies during his four terms, and his friends are many on both sides of the political divide. He is one of the few men in the House whose return to private life will be a loss to the country and business-like consideration of legislation.

Birthday Party.

Donald Morgan celebrated his fourth birthday yesterday at the tables by inviting in several of his young friends.

The ladies of the house furnished dainty and elaborate refreshments under the supervision of Mrs. Mae Griff, who did all in her power to make the occasion a pleasant one for the children.

Groups of different kinds were indulged in and for a couple of hours the children enjoyed a good time.

HOW DOTH THE LITTLE BUSY BEE

By Isaac Watts

How doth the little busy bee,
Improve each shining hour,
And gather sweet perfume
From every opening flower?
From every opening flower,
How doth she toil and sweat,
And knows her time is lost,
When she forgets to wait.
In works of labor we are well,
I would be true to say,
For I must make some mischief still
For idle hands to do.
In looks, or work, or faithful play,
Let not first years be passed;
What I must give for every day,
Some good account at last.

TOURIST EXODUS A MONTH OFF EUCHRE PARTIES LAST NIGHT

Railroads are Making Great Preparations to Handle the Great Number of People Bound Northwest.

Although the exodus of visitors will not take place in earnest for more than a month, the railroads are beginning to make plans for transporting the tourists now in Florida and Cuba back to their homes in the East and West. It is believed that there are more tourists in Florida now than there have ever been before at this season of the year.

In a conversation with a prominent railroad man the Daytona News reporter was told this Florida was full of tourists and, continuing, he said: "The tourists have literally been pouring into the Land of Flowers, the travel to Cuba is heavy, and there are more tourists in Florida now than there have ever been before in the history of this city."

The transportation of these tourists back to their homes will necessitate a heavy movement of trains.

"Where did all the people go before they began coming South?" asked the News man. "Well, it is hard to say. Many of them went to California, the reason that they are coming South in such large numbers is that the railroads have provided very fast through schedules and the most luxurious trains. For instance, one can leave Chicago on one of our routes at 11:30 a. m., and be in Daytona at 11:30 p. m., the way, without leaving his car, except to go into the dining car. You can leave New York on our Florida and West Indian Limited at 9:25 a. m., and take 2 weeks' time in Jacksonville the next day."

A few years ago such schedules were unheard of and would have been thought impossible."

Albert H. Brown, of New York, is registered at the Ridgwood. Mr. Brown is touring the East Coast, securing views for the Detroit Photo Co., which are to be reproduced in a handsome booklet shortly.

She spoke of the many advantages derived from them, the benefit they were to all who attended, etc., and mentioned those in New York, Boston and other places, the most interesting one being in Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. Mary's, sister of Mr. Roger, was introduced to the ladies and gave a most excellent and interesting address, or talk of "Woman on the School Board," and the help they were there. It was certainly a pleasure to listen to her, the only regret was that her talk was so short.

A solo by Mr. Stewart closed the program of a most interesting afternoon, just before refreshments. Mrs. Raynor gave a sketch of the work done the past year by the Educational Department.

Refreshments, consisting of cake and cream, were served by the ladies of the department, and a very pleasant social time was enjoyed by all.

HOW DOTHTHE LITTLE BUSY BEE

By Isaac Watts

How doth the little busy bee
Improve each shining hour,
And gather honey all the day
From every opening flower.

How skillfully she builds her cell;
How neat she spreads her wax,
And labors hard to store it well
With the sweet food she makes.

In works of labor or of skill,
I would be busy, too;
For Satan finds some mischief still
For idle hands to do.

In books, or work, or heedful pity,
Let my first years be passed;
That I may give for every day

HER STOLEN RIDE.

Mrs. Fletcher's Illegal Use of a Street Car Tension.

"I think," said Mrs. Fletcher serenely, "that I did something today that would land me in the penitentiary if anybody ever found out about it."

"In that case," Fletcher remarked, "it is to be hoped nobody will ever find out."

"I don't think they will. I am quite sure I shall not tell it to anybody but you. But really it was dangerous. I made an illegal use of a street car transfer. A young man on the corner gave it to me. He asked me if I was coming uptown from Sixty-fifth street, and I said I was."

"Then perhaps you'd like to take this transfer," he said. "I am not going to use it."

"He was an awfully nice young fellow. He said he always takes transfers whether he wants them or not. If he doesn't need them he may see somebody else who does. I told him I would like to take that one, but that I was afraid."

"There is a law against traffic in transfers, isn't there?" I said.

"Oh, bother the law!" said the young man. "I believe they did clap some fellows into jail the other day for fine them or something for handling transfers, but they didn't work it right. You're all right so long as you don't get caught."

"Of course," continued Mrs. Fletcher. "I could see that much myself, so I took the transfer. It made me feel quite—quite—you know what?"

"Devilish!" suggested Fletcher.

"Yes, quite un-m-m-m to be mixed up in such a crooked deal. You see, I didn't know any minute what would come of it. I was scared, yet I thoroughly enjoyed the situation. For months I have been wanting to ride on a stolen transfer. I have seen lots of other people do it, and they all looked so happy because they had saved a nickel that I really envied them. I didn't think I would ever have nerve enough to try it, but—"

Mrs. Fletcher opened her purse and scattered the contents on the table.

"Hello!" said Fletcher. "There's another transfer. Where did you get that?"

Mrs. Fletcher eyed the green slip of paper wonderingly.

"Oh, I remember now," she said. "I met Mrs. Boyer in the car. I got so interested in what she told me about her new sleeves that I forgot all about the transfer. I gave the conductor a nickel after all."—New York Press.

Purely Scientific.

Aunt Jane—Didn't I see you and Mr. Lipman kissing in the hall last night,

Millie?

Millie—Of course you did, Aunt Jane. We had been talking about the existence of microbes in kisses, and as we couldn't settle the question any other way, and purely out of curiosity, you know, we just exchanged a kiss to see if the microbe story was true or false.

Aunt Jane—Well, and what decision did you arrive at?

Millie—Oh, dear! We have only begun our experiments. Of course it wouldn't be right to give them up after only once trying. Boston Transcript.

EUCBRE PARTIES LAST NIGHT

Guests of The Palmetto and Austin and Residents of Cedar Street at the Card Table.

The usual progressive euchre parties held Thursday nights proved more attractive last night than ever before, there being a larger number of contestants present.

At The Austin twenty-four guests competed for the handsome prizes offered. Miss Adele Royce, of Escambia, Mich., secured the first ladies' prize and John Cook, of Cincinnati, won the first gentlemen's prize. Miss Katherine Fay, of Chicago, was awarded the consolation prize.

The Gables last night was the scene of a delightful card party and musicale, the feature of the evening's entertainment being the rendition of that well-known pathetic ballad "I Never Told a Lie," by Jno. Blyth, which caused round after round of applause.

Mrs. McGriff furnished a delicate collation which was much enjoyed by the guests present, and the guests of the hotel praise in the highest terms the hospitality of their hostess.

W. J. Morgan was the master of ceremonies and to him is due the credit of the pleasant condition of the euchre party.

Jno. Blyth secured the first prize, a stag horn cork screw, and Mr. Vose was awarded the second prize, a hand-saw.

Mrs. W. J. Morgan won the first ladies' prize, a beautiful Japanese cup and saucer, and Mrs. Rowe received a souvenir silver coffee spoon.

Consolation prizes were awarded Mrs. C. A. Luce and Mr. Keating, the former receiving a dainty paper knife and the latter an alligator paper weight.

A colored string band serenaded the hotel during the playing of the game.

The progressive euchre party given at the Palmetto last night attracted

The circulation of the DAILY NEWS is steadily increasing and on Monday passed the 500 mark by a clear majority of 100. Monday's edition of the paper was exhausted fifteen minutes after the last form was off the press. 600 for a daily in a city the size of Daytona is a very creditable showing and is evidence that the public appreciate our efforts. It shall be our aim to build the circulation to a still higher figure and to accomplish this will make it better and better each day.

PENINSULA SOCIAL MISCELLANY

Short Paragraphs of Personal and Social Events Among Our Neighbors Across the Halifax.

A crowd of young people went for a launch ride on the river Friday afternoon. They left about 2 o'clock, expecting to return before dark. They reached Port Orange in safety and visited the old sugar mills. On their return home they got stuck on an oyster bar, and being unable to move the boat, they had to call for help from Port Orange. They reached home, however, about 8:30 o'clock without any accidents.

Senator W. Grady, of Georgia, is at The Clarendon.

Mrs. John Allen is erecting a handsome cottage on Valley street next door to her residence.

G. E. Batten, of the old reliable Forest and Stream, is at The Clarendon. He is accompanied by his wife.

J. C. Gaddis, of Montclair, N. J., is stopping at The Clarendon.

The Colonades gave their opening ball Wednesday evening, March 4.

Mrs. Wm. Postell and daughter, Miss Dorothy, of Baltimore, are at The Clarendon for the season.

Mr. G. W. Gardner and wife have returned from their trip to Nassau.

Mr. Harry Coleman spent Sunday in town.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Kincaid and daughters, of Lexington, Ky., are at The Clarendon.

Mrs. G. W. Thompson and child, of Raleigh, N. C., are stopping at The Clarendon.

Mr. C. W. Horton and wife, of Covington, Ky., are at The Clarendon for the winter.

Mrs. Julia A. Baker, mother of Mrs. Wm. Davenport, died at their home on the beach last week. She was 76 years of age and was beloved by all. She leaves one daughter and three grandsons to mourn her loss. Her remains were sent to her former home in Illinois for interment.

A large crowd attended the card party at the Kenzie this week.

The dance at the Armory Tuesday evening was well attended by our Southern young people.

Miss Frances Haight gave a Japanese party to a few of her girl friends Friday evening. Japanese music was played.

The Misses Fritts gave a chaffing dish party to a few friends at the Lambdin cottage Tuesday evening. In consequence of a disappointed hay rack party which was to have taken place a few nights before, but met with an accident, the would-be participants were entertained on the following Tuesday evening in a very enjoyable way. Those present were the Misses Clyde Hoops, Edith Shalinger, Nell Taylor, Gertrude, Kenneth and Bertha Lambdin, Louise and Mamie Fritts, Messrs. Mero and Owen Eloy, Rufus Kingman, L. Vincent, M. Courtney and H. Holing, Mrs. Eley, Mrs. Fritts and Mrs. Phelps.

The ladies of the First Congregational Church will hold a bazaar at the Armory, March 9th.

Virtue's Quick Reward.
"Nothing ever better illustrated to me," remarked the doctor, "the old adage, 'Virtue is its own reward,' than an experience I had the other day. Called for the first time to a patient who was desperately ill in addition to being penniless, I gave her $5 with which to purchase the necessities of life. The next morning I received a note from her not to call again. Later I learned she had called in a homeopathic physician, to whom she paid a fee of $2, and with the remainder of my charitable contribution she had a monthly installment on a phonograph."
—New York Press.

What the Hand Symbolizes.
Look where we will, we find the hand in time and history, working, building, inventing, bringing civilization out of barbarism. The hand symbolizes power and the excellence of work. The mechanic's hand, that minister of elemental forces, the hand that hews, saws, cuts, builds, is useful in the world equally with the delicate hand that paints a wild flower or molds a Grecian urn or the hand of a statesman that writes a law. The eye cannot see to the hand, "I have no need of thee." Blessed be the hand! Three blessed be the hands that work!
—Helen Keller in Century.

Anecdote of Lewis Carroll.
Canon Eddon wrote this in his diary concerning an incident of a holiday tour he took with his friend, Charles L. Dodgson, better known as Lewis Carroll: "Dodgson was overcome by the beauty of Cologne cathedral. I found him leaning against the rails of the choir and sobbing like a child. When the vergers came to show us over the chapels he got out of the way. He said that he could not bear the harsh voice of the man in the presence of so much beauty."

Just Debts.
"And what were the provisions of your uncle's will?"
"That I should have all he left after the payment of his just debts."
"Ah, very good of the old man, wasn't it? What did he leave?"
"Just debts."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Launch Party.

C. F. Seymour, a guest of the Palmetto, took a large party on his launch to the Inlet yesterday. In the party were E. P. Ruyon, E. W. Mansfield, A. D. Gilley, Ben Johnson, W. W. Wood, L. Ellean, A. S. Lockard, Wm. Christie, Geo. Courversie and W. H. Barry.

A large quantity of fish were secured, the largest, a 5 1/2 pound sheephead being caught by Capt. Seymour.

Bowling Alley Records.

Barney O'Hfield holds the highest record at the bowling alley, he having made 199 in eight successive strings.

In big pin bowling, Percy Rodgers holds the record of 198.

In the same class for ladies, Miss Chamberlain holds the record of 198 points.

The duck pin record is held by Percy Rodgers, he having made a score of 107.

Launch Races.

The Daily News reporter, while making his rounds yesterday, asked several of the merchants their opinion on the possibility of having a series of launch races at an early date.

Every gentleman interviewed expressed the hope that such an event would be pulled off and stated that they would be more than willing to contribute toward buying prizes if the event would be given where a number of people could witness it.

If any member of the Yacht Club wishes the time to devote to such an enterprise would call on the merchants and hotel proprietors and request subscriptions, he would be able to raise enough money to offer some valuable prize.

Special Arrived This Morning.

The third Pennsylvania Railroad personally conducted tour of the season arrived this morning. It consisted of seven Pullman cars. The total number of tourists was 200, the largest number that has ever come to Florida on any of the Pennsylvania special tours.

The party will remain in Florida for the next two weeks, visiting the various points of interest in the State. All were delighted with the beautiful spring weather they encountered today upon their arrival, and there was a rush for trunks to get out their thinner garments.

Mrs. Thos. N. Smith, of Tacoma, Washington, arrived at the Seaside Inn on Thursday. She will spend the balance of the winter with her friend, Mrs. Stewart.

W. B. Kenney and wife left today for a few days' visit with Mrs. L. B. C. Davenport at Holly Hill. She will return to the Seaside Inn and later spend a few days at St. Augustine before returning to their home in Cleveland.

Geo. H. Brown and a party of friends from the Troy House went down on the launch Spruce Creek to the pavilion at the head of Spruce Creek yesterday and spent a pleasant day. A large number of fish were caught and over thirty gators were seen.

A gentleman walked into the bank yesterday with a bag of peanuts in one hand and a bag of popcorn in the other and asked who was the more crazy, the man who bought peanuts or popcorn? "Peanuts," answered one, "because they are nutty." "Oh, I don't know," said a bystander, "the corn is cracked."

Prof. Danji, of Tokyo, Japan, delivered his lecture at Schmidt's Villa, last night, which was much enjoyed by the large number of guests who heard him. After the lecture was over he conversed pleasantly for an hour or more with those present. The professor stated that his collection last night amounted to more than at any hotel in the city and will materially aid the Red Cross society which he represents.

Musical at Seaside Inn.

Thursday evening a delightful program of music and recitation was arranged for the guests of The Seaside Inn by Mrs. Stewart. Only friends of the hotel guests and of the performers were invited, and yet the spacious parlors were crowded with interested listeners.

The charming pianist, Miss May MacFarlane, of Toronto, was in great evidence. Besides her two piano numbers, she accompanied all the other artists.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson rendered several numbers on violin and cello in their usual finished style. Mrs. Fred Lyon, soprano, Miss Hooper, contralto, and Miss Lois VanValzah sang one of their best selections, each responding to recall.

Miss Griffin recited some of her droll recitations to the delight of everyone, especially the children. After the program dancing was indulged in, the Seaside Inn orchestra, George Colgan, of Boston, director, furnishing the music.
